The Junior League of Albany, Inc.
Rockwell Scholarship Award

Our Mission

The Junior League of Albany, Inc. is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable endeavors with a particular focus on women and children.

About The Rockwell Scholarship

Because of the generosity of the late Marjorie Doyle Rockwell and in her memory, the Junior League of Albany awards the Rockwell Scholarship each year to one young woman to assist in obtaining the education and skills necessary to further her volunteer potential. The award is $1,000.

Eligibility Criteria

An applicant for the Rockwell Scholarship must be:

1. A resident of the Capital District; and
2. A high school (or equivalent) graduate currently enrolled in an accredited college, university or secondary educational or vocational program; or
3. A candidate for high school graduation in the 2024-2025 school year who will be applying for enrollment in an accredited college, university or secondary educational or vocational program for the 2025-2026 academic year; and
4. Currently involved in volunteer organizations or activities which serve women and children.

To Apply

We ask that applicants please send a narrative of no more than 500 words demonstrating eligibility based on the criteria above. Your narrative should describe your current volunteer work that serves women and children and explain how the scholarship will assist you in achieving your goals. Your narrative must include a statement describing how you will continue your commitment to volunteer work in college, university, or in a secondary educational or vocational program. If appropriate, please include in your narrative any information concerning your economic need. Each application must be accompanied by an academic transcript and one letter of recommendation. The letter of recommendation must be from someone at an organization for which you volunteer.

Applications must be submitted by March 15, 2025

Guidelines for Selecting Award Recipients

Applications will be evaluated based on overall quality and whether the applicant has met all eligibility requirements. The scholarship shall be awarded based on both the applicant's past activity and commitment to continued volunteer work in the community. Economic need will also be taken into consideration. No Junior League of Albany member or relative thereof will be eligible for the scholarship. An award winner may only receive a scholarship award once. An unsuccessful applicant may reapply. The award recipient must agree to attend a Junior League of Albany General Membership Meeting on May 13, 2025, to accept the award.
